THE GOOD NEWS

WALKERS WITH THE DAWN

Being walkers with the dawn
and morning,
Walkers with the sun and morning,
We are not afraid of night,
Nor days of gloom,
Nor darkness—
Being walkers with the sun and morning.
—Langston Hughes

Living the Good News
5th Sunday in Lent—A

- How is the story of Lazarus a story of “night” or “gloom” or “darkness”?
What sad things happen in his story?
- How is the story of Lazarus a story of “sun” and “morning”?
What glad things happen in his story?
- How is the life of Jesus a story of “night” or “gloom” or “darkness”?
What sad things happen in the story of Jesus?
- How is the story of Jesus a story of “sun” and “morning”?
What glad things happen in the story of Jesus?
- What sad things happen in the world today?
- What can Christians do to make those stories into stories of “sun” and “morning”?
