Welcome to St. Peter's Church

We are glad you are here, and we invite you to enter fully into worship today. No matter where you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here. We are a church rooted in Christian tradition, and open to new ideas, committed to service in community and world as part of the world-wide Anglican Communion and the Episcopal Diocese of Newark. The work of worship is shared by all, and we invite you to participate in the spoken and sung responses and hymns as you are able. Help us to make this a place where God's grace is freely shared by everyone.

Welcome and Offering

All are welcome to make a gift and offering in thanksgiving to God for the many blessings we have received. To take advantage of our electronic giving options, please follow the QR code with your capable electronic device.

Maundy Thursday

Tonight we enter the Triduum, the three-days' space starting with Maundy Thursday and ending at the Great Vigil of Easter on Holy Saturday evening. In these three days we recall Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection. Through Christ we are saved and made free.

The traditional English name for today, "Maundy," comes from the Latin word mandatum which means "commandment." There are two traditional associations on this day: the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the command of our Lord to wash each others' feet—the "mandatum" (John 13:4-5). The footwashing ceremony is an ancient practice of the church meant to remind us of our duty to love and serve one another and the world. Jesus taught that strength and growth in the life of the Kingdom of God comes not by power, authority, or even miracles, but by such lowly service.

After communion, the altar is stripped of all cloths and ornaments, and the clergy of stoles just as Christ was stripped of his garments. The Eucharist will not be celebrated again until the Great Vigil of Easter on Saturday night.

The service has no dismissal; rather, the church continues to watch and pray throughout the Triduum.

THE LESSONS

FIRST LESSON

Exodus 12:1-14

Reader

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the LORD. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD;

throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

SECOND LESSON

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Reader

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean." After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.... Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

FOOTWASHING

Please join in singing this Refrain during the ceremony

Jacques Berthier

U - bi ca - ri - tas et a - mor,

u - bi ca - ri - tas De - us i - bi est.

Cantor

If I have the gift of prophecy, understanding all the mysteries there are, knowing everything; if I have faith in all its fullness to move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing at all. Refrain

Cantor

If I give everything I have to feed the poor and let them take my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing at all. Refrain

Cantor

*Love is patient, love is not jealous.
Love does not rejoice in what is wrong, but love rejoices in the truth.
Love is always ready to excuse, to hope, to trust, and to endure whatever comes. Refrain*

Cantor

*Love never fails. Prophecies will cease, and tongues will be silent;
knowledge will pass away;
But there are only three things in the end that last:
faith, hope and love, and the greatest of these is love. Refrain*

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

- Presider* In the power of the Spirit let us pray to the Father through Christ the Savior of the world.
- Leader* Father, on this, the night he was betrayed, your Son Jesus Christ washed his disciples' feet. We commit ourselves to follow his example of love and service.
Lord, hear us,
- ALL* And humble us.
- Leader* On this night, he prayed for his disciples to be one. We pray for the unity of your Church.
Lord, hear us,
- ALL* And unite us.
- Leader* On this night, he prayed for those who were to believe through his disciples' message. We pray for the mission of your Church.
Lord, hear us,
- ALL* And renew our zeal.
- Leader* On this night, he commanded his disciples to love, but suffered rejection himself. We pray for the rejected and unloved, and the sick and the suffering, especially N.
Lord, hear us,
- ALL* And fill us with your love.
- Leader* On this night, he reminded his disciples that if the world hated them it hated him first. We pray for those who are persecuted for their faith, and for all who will be baptized at Easter.
Lord, hear us,
- ALL* And give us your peace.
- Leader* On this night, he accepted the cup of death and looked forward to the new wine of the kingdom. We remember N. and all those who have died in the peace of Christ.
Lord, hear us,
- ALL* And welcome all your children into paradise.
- Presider* Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you." Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever.
- ALL* Amen.

Presider
ALL

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

THE INVITATION

Presider The gifts of God for the People of God.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Bread and Cup to be in communion with God and each other. You may receive only the bread by placing your hands together flat in front of you (Gluten-free wafers are available upon request). Afterwards you may drink wine from the chalice. If you would rather have the bread intincted (dipped) in the wine, you may hand the bread to the person administering the chalice and they will intinct and hand it back to you. If you (or your child) would rather not receive the Sacrament, you may come to the altar rail during Communion and cross your arms on your chest for a blessing. Please join in singing this response during the distribution of Holy Communion.

ALL

Almighty God, source of all love,
 whose only-begotten Son, on the night of his betrayal,
 gave his disciples a new commandment,
 to love one another as he loved them:
 write this commandment in our hearts;
 and give us the will to serve others as he was the servant of all,
 who gave his life and died for us,
 yet is alive and reigns with you
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

STRIPPING THE ALTAR

The Altar Guild will in the join in the Stripping of the Altar. This ancient practice is a reminder of the emptying by Christ of his life—completing all his earthly possessions and relationships, an emptying-out that was finished when he relinquished his spirit to the Father on the Cross on Good Friday.

We strip the altar as Christ's body was stripped in his humiliation.

The choir will chant Psalm 22 during the Stripping of the Altar. The service has no dismissal; rather, the church continues to watch and pray throughout the Triduum. Please leave quietly.
